Not for Profit.

A Message from the CEO...

What does that mean to you? I hope you immediately think of your Credit Union where that is one of our fundamental doctrines. Credit Unions differ from banks because our primary reason for being here is not to make a profit but to provide financial services for our members, or shareholders, at more attractive rates and fees than our counterparts. Sure, we need to show a positive bottom line to support reserves, new products and services, expansion and the list goes on, but our remaining profits are returned to you, our owners, in the form of higher savings rates, lower loan rates and lower fees. Keep that in mind when shopping for your next loan or account.

You may have heard about a multi-billion dollar credit union coming to Clovis. How will that affect us? By offering you the best mix of products and services available, we will continue making your business and satisfaction our top priority with decisions made right here in Clovis.

Thank you for choosing to do business with Cannon FCU where we offer

A Better Way to Bank!

Jim Fillman

Board Corner

Your Board of Directors has been working very hard to ensure we provide the best in customer service and products. We were very excited with the launch of the Online Banking and Mobile App and hope to see Apple pay type of service in the near future. If there are products or services you would like to see our Credit Union look at providing please let our CEO, Jim Fillman, know and we will look into it.

As most everyone has heard, High Plains Federal Credit Union has merged with Pentagon Federal Credit Union. We want to assure everyone that we will continue to provide the excellent customer service you have relied upon for so many years. We believe in the personal approach to taking care of your financial needs. If you have any questions or concerns please feel free to contact Jim or a Board Member.

Finally, we are looking for someone that might be interested in being on the Supervisory Committee. The Supervisory Committee provides a vital service to the Credit Union and the Board of Directors. If you are interested or know someone that is please contact me at gtjones.cfcu@gmail.com.

Sincerely,
George T. Jones IV,
Chairman, Board of Directors
